County Seeks Halt To MTF Mothballing

Two Washington senators, one Democrat and one Republican, and two state representatives, one Democrat and one Republican, were contacted by Hancock County Board of Supervisors on Monday and asked to offer their assistance in current efforts to reduce the Mississippi Test Facility to a safe status.

Telegrams requesting assistance in the mothballing of the facility were dispatched to Senators James Eastland and Allen Tate of Mississippi; Senator Russell Long and Allen Tate of Louisiana; Senators Ray Byrd, D-Ind., Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, William Spong, D-Va., Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, Robert Dole, R-Kan., all members of the Senate Subcommittee on Disaster Relief; the Senate Committee on Public Works; and White House staff.

Also sent telegrams were Washington Congressmen William Colmer, Thomas Abernethy, Jamie Whitten, Charles Stenholm, G. V. Montgomery, all of Mississippi; Edward Hebert of Idaho; Boggs of Louisiana; and Senator Martin Smith and his representatives Walter James Phillips and Lennie Smith.

On our behalf at the current NASA hearings in Washington, D.C. with all priorities and influence accumulated by our Mississippi representation in the nation's capital. Expecting definite action now.

The wires were signed by Russell Elliott and C. A. Ruse.

Employment Service Expands Operations

Since July 21, 1969, when it was first set up to conduct a labor availability survey for Hancock County the Mississippi Employment Service office and its manager, George L. Guion, has proven to be one of the most important agencies in the state adapting to numerous other projects since the labor survey was made.

In April of last year the Hancock County Board of Supervisors asked the Mississippi Employment Service to make a Labor Availability Survey of Hancock County such as had been made in other Mississippi counties.

Bay St. Louis Council Reports

Mayor Warren Carver of Bay St. Louis announced this week that the City had received authority from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to proceed with implementation of the HUD Interim Assistance and Certified Area Programs in Bay St. Louis.

The City Commission had previously passed a resolution authorizing the City of Bay St. Louis to enter into a contract with the federal government to receive and administer funds under the two programs in accordance with HUD regulations. The City had also entered into a one-year contract with the General Electric Company to serve as agent for the City in administering the Interim Assistance and Certified Area Programs. General Electric has named Robert E. Reighner as project administrator.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development has approved the city's Interim Assistance Program application for $439,284 to aid in financing the local program. Monies under the IAP are for paying the costs of public repairs and improvements, administration, legal expenses, a comprehensive cleanup campaign, and temporary repair of public playgrounds.

Mayor Carver said advice has also been received that HUD has approved the City's application for funds under the Certified Area Program and has allocated $1,082,000 to be used for grants and loans thereunder. This program will provide money for grants and/or low-interest loans to those who qualify. Initial funds under each of the programs should be released by the federal government shortly after the contracts are signed and the city's regulations are received by HUD.

Job applications for open positions on the staff of the Interim Assistance Program in Bay St. Louis will be taken at the Mississippi State Employment Service office in Bay St. Louis and further information concerning loans and grants and other aspects of the programs will be released as the programs progress, Mayor Carver said.

MARDI GRAS CAME TO BAY ST. LOUIS this week as local Jaycees sponsored an impressive parade of Carnival floats which toured the city, throwing the usual beads, doubloons and trinkets to the excited spectators.

Nixon Requests $1.85 Million For Gulf Coast

Mississippi Congressman William M. Colmer informed the Echo this week that the President's budget request for the fiscal year 1971 Civil Works Program includes a proposed allocation of $1,850,000 for Mississippi's fifth Congressional district. The program is under the auspices of the U.S. Corps of Engineers, and includes $22,000 for operation and Maintenance of Pass Christian Harbor; $200,000 for Biloxi Harbor; $800,000 for Gulfport Harbor; $750,000 for Pascagoula; and $42,000 for Wolf and Jordan Rivers.

The proposal also includes $80,000 for Bayou Caddy, and $40,000 for advance engineering and design.

Approval Granted Waveland On HUD Assistance Program

Mayor Garfield Laddner of Waveland announced Tuesday that the city had received authority from the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to proceed with the Interim Assistance and Certified Area Programs on behalf of the City of Waveland.

Mayor Laddner said that a resolution was passed by the Town Council on February 3, authorizing the City of Waveland to enter into a contract with the U.S. Government to receive and administer funds under the two programs. He said the city had also entered into a one-year contract with the General Electric Company to serve as agent for the city in administering the Interim Assistance and Certified Area Programs.

Advice has also been received that HUD has approved the City's application for funds under the Certified Area Program and has allocated $825,000 for grants and loans thereunder. He said the program provides money for grants and/or low interest loans to those who qualify.

Mayor Laddner said initial funds under each of the programs should be released by the federal government shortly after the contracts are signed and the city's regulations are received by HUD.

Job applications for open positions on the staff of the Interim Assistance Program in Waveland will be taken at the Mississippi State Employment office in Bay St. Louis, and further information concerning eligibility for loans and grants and other aspects of the program will be released as the programs progress, Mayor Laddner said.

Supervisors Meet In Secret Session

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors met as scheduled on Wednesday, February 11, with the directors of the State Aid Road Division and Bureau of Public Roads. However, when ECHO News Editor Jim Brown and senior staff reporter Reed Frisbie entered the meeting, they were diplomatically excluded by Chairman Russell Elliott. The next scheduled public meeting would be February 24, he said.

A petition of grievance signed by 83 citizens who identified themselves as "tax-payers of Shoreline Park" requesting consideration of suggested improvements for inadequate drainage facilities, and poor road conditions was presented at Monday's meeting of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors. Specifically, the petition called for: proper cleaning of drainage ditches, and in certain cases, restructuring of culverts so that water may drain naturally; hard surfacing of all main roads in their area; and cement bridges across every canal.

No immediate action was taken on the petition at the meeting, but it was formally accepted as a matter of record. The petition "contains many constructive suggestions," stated Board Chairman Russell Elliott, "but there is no way under our present tax structure that all of these measures can be accomplished." The Board did agree, however, to take all of the complaints into submission, and stated it would try to expedite some of the matters. Elliott expressed hope that some funds for topping of roads in all areas of the county could be obtained through the Office of Emergency Preparedness' Disaster Relief Program.

The Board stated that it plans to meet with Federal officials in Washington, D.C. next week, to discuss details of O.E.P.'s road reconstruction and cleanup projects, and with the directors of the State Aid Road Division and Bureau of Public Roads February 11.

In other matters, the Board acted on a request by Hancock County Tax Assessor George Heitzmann that all trailers obtained through the Housing and Urban Development's Disaster Program be tax-exempt for one year. Responding to another question by Assessor Heitzmann the Board stated that special bond issues in Beale Four and Five will remain in their old boundaries, established prior to the redistricting of the county.

The Supervisors accepted an insurance settlement of $1,807 for loss of heating and air conditioning facilities at the Hancock County Health Center, and it was stated that the facilities could be replaced at a cost of $1,550, on a special State contract price. A motion was also adopted providing for construction of a new support beam for the roof of the Center.

The Board rejected another insurance settlement of $1,886 for storm damages to the Hancock County Agricultural Building on Necaise Avenue.

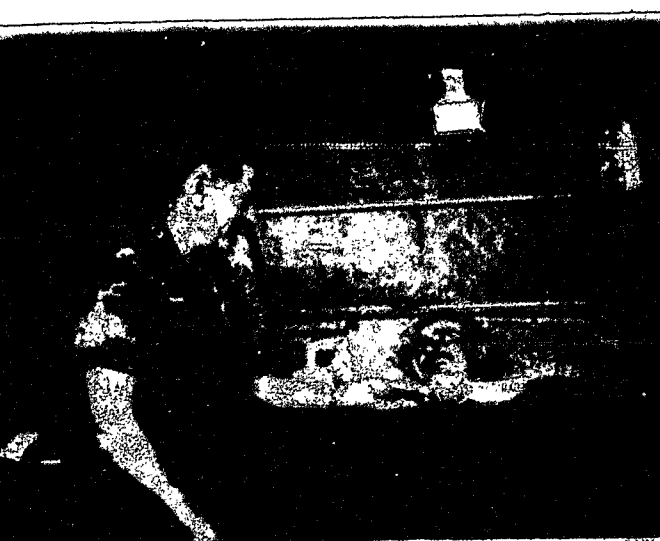

It was also announced at the meeting that bids would be accepted for gravel, for use in road improvements, beginning March 1.

The Board commended the ladies who worked on the Noroids parade, in spite of severe hurricane damage to the floats.

February Proclaimed Heart Month By Mayors

A proclamation designating February as Heart Month, and pointing out that diseases of the heart and blood vessels are responsible for more deaths than all other causes combined, causing widespread suffering, and often creating serious economic hardship in our homes and businesses.

"And whereas, your Heart Month Association carries forward a relentless fight against these diseases through its programs of research, education and community service, as made possible by public contribution to the Heart Fund;

"Therefore, I proclaim February to be Heart Month within the jurisdiction of my office, and call upon all our citizens to support this important drive with their gifts and voluntary services."

Our readers write

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I think the best thing that could be done for the world today? Food and housing. Food is moving fast. Because of that we are eating fast. All that needs to be done is just open up a package of potato salad and put it in a pre-steamed bowl of water. But the bowl should be filled only 3/4 full to the top. Then when a powder is poured in, then you'll have potato salad ready to eat.

The house facilities come in. You have to heat the potato. What we need is an electric mixer with a coffee pot, a toaster and a radio hooked on. While your salad or whatever is in the mixer bowl, making you can sit on your portable stool and listen to the radio.

Yours truly,
GEORGETTA KERSEY

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I do want things in the 70's to change. If all of the hate in the world could be changed to love and peace, there would be friendship, kindness, and goodness among all. Also if we had love and peace then most people would think about others before themselves. If this would happen the world would be a better place to live in.

Sincerely,
MAYDENE SHIVOU

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
The United States needs to change for it to become a better country and more peaceful place to live. Most important of all I think would be to draw our men out of Vietnam. If this country could be a much better place to live on and people would be more loyal if families were closer together.

Sincerely,
JOHNIE RICH

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I would like for things to change. I would like the people, schools, crime, war, poverty and hunger. These particular things should be changed as soon as possible. Maybe if we were to have education in this it is possible.

Sincerely,
PAM MAUFFRAY

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
There are many things I would like to change in the world. War, most of all because it makes no sense to anyone. In Paris they are arguing and can't decide what to do. I know what we can do. End the war and stop.

Sincerely Yours,
PAMELA LADNER

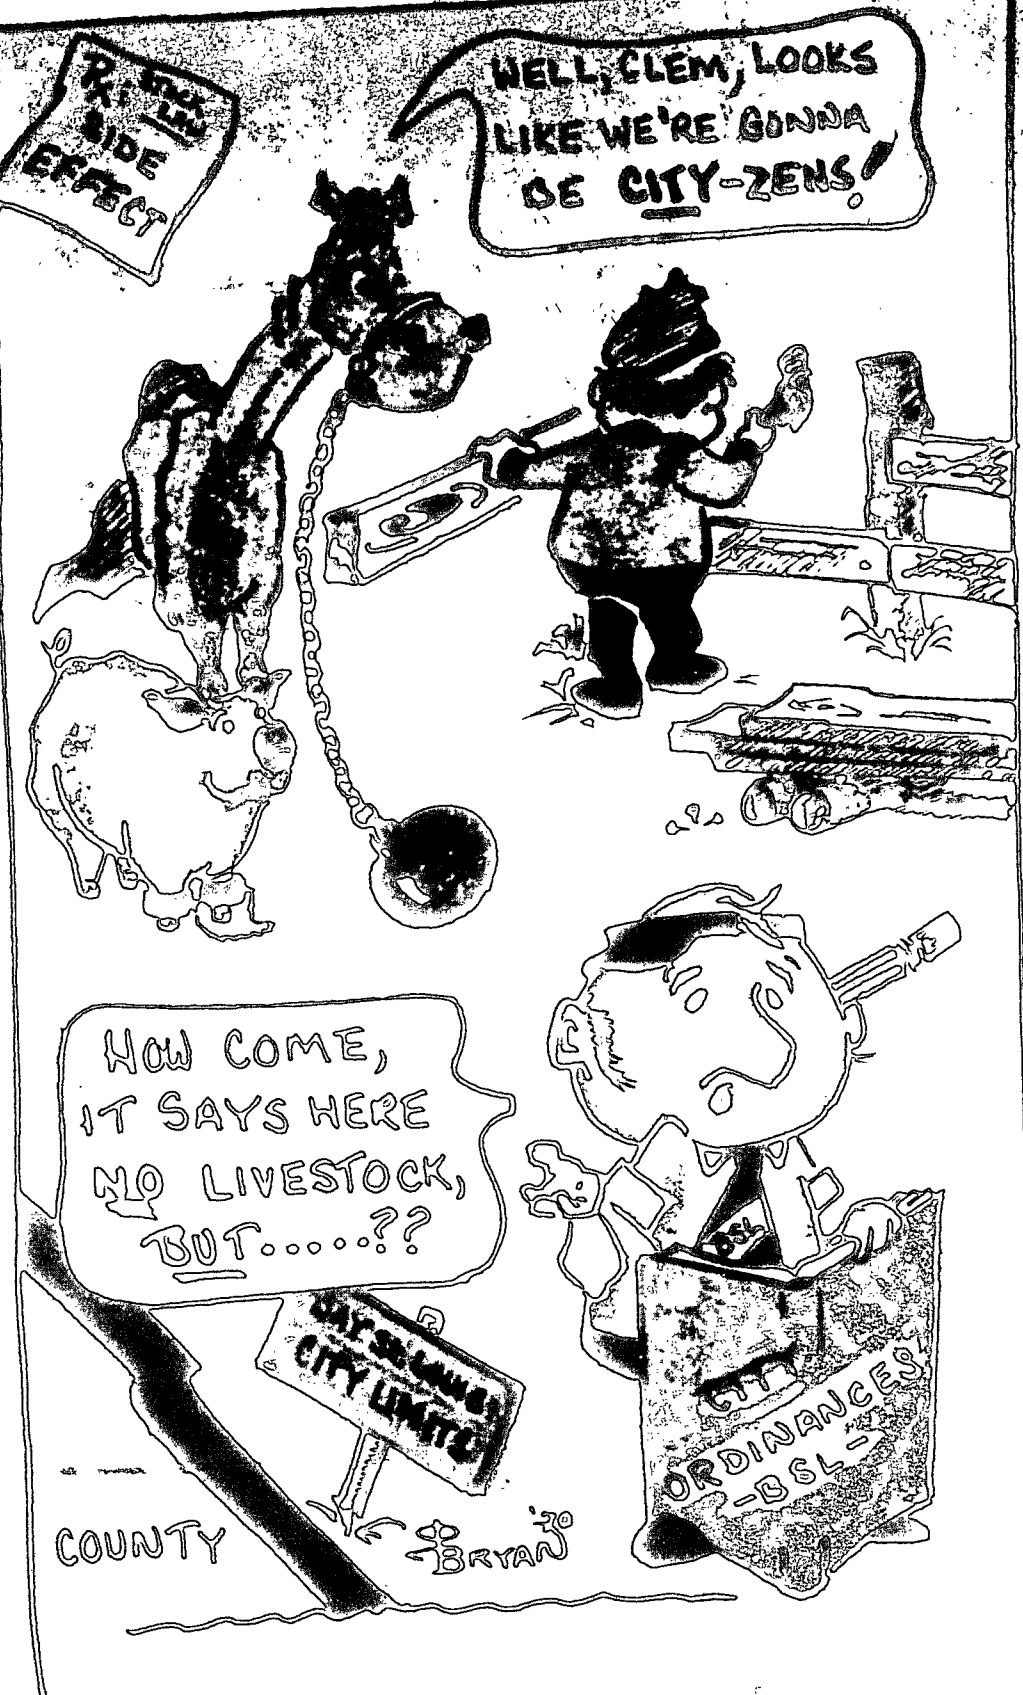

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I want a lot of things to change in the 70's, but the main one is the war. We can have peace around the world. Two many boys are getting shot at and killed. I would rather have the war stopped than anything else.

Sincerely,
CARL OLSEN

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
There are a lot of things I would like to change, but what I would really like to change is the way people act. It is terrible to see people fighting and killing each other. If people were not so selfish maybe some of the people that are chasing would not be chasing. If people were not so greedy there would not be war. If people were not so proud there would not be so much education in the churches. There are some of the reasons why I would like people and the way they act to change.

Sincerely,
MARIA LADNER

Who Runs The Affairs Of The City Of Bay St. Louis, The Hancock County Board of Supervisors or The City Of Bay St. Louis Administration?????

Chapter 5
ANIMALS

Art. I. In General, §§ 5-1-5-16
Art. II. Dogs, §§ 5-17-5-27

Article I. In General

Sec. 5-1. Definition.

For the purposes of this chapter, the word "livestock" shall be construed to mean cows, calves, bulls, horses, mules, jackasses, jennies, goats, hogs and sheep. (Rev. Ord. 1932, p. 38, § 2)

Sec. 5-2. Administration of chapter; appointment of pound-keeper.

The chief of police shall administer the provisions of this chapter and, with the consent and approval of the mayor and board of commissioners, shall designate and appoint some qualified person as poundkeeper.

Cross reference—Compensation of appointive officers and employees, § 2-10.

Sec. 5-3. Interfering with enforcement, releasing animals from pound.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to interfere with the poundkeeper, deputy poundkeeper or any police officer in the discharge of their duties under the provisions of this chapter, or for any person to remove or assist in removing any impounded animal from the city pound without the consent of the poundkeeper or other person in charge thereof.

Sec. 5-4. Livestock, fowl not to be kept.

It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or allow or permit to be kept any livestock or fowl on such person's property within the city.

Cross reference—Animals and pets in mobile home parks, § 16-25.
State law reference—General statute law, Miss. Code Ann. 1942, § 24, 296 et seq.; general provisions regarding cruelty to animals, §§ 9-1-9-7A.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
A change is needed in the 70's. In the 70's there are many things that really need changing, but the one specific thing to be changed in the 70's I think is people. People in the 60's were crazy in a sense. They would just deal, kill and pretend. But only few wonderful things could be if people would change their ways in the 1970's. Change their ways the way of love and kindness and respect. The 1970's is a great year. This is love and this is hope in the people's minds. These people can and may change if they try.

Sincerely,
TONY HODGES

DAIRY FEEDING
Now, while you are really familiar with your feed needs, in the time to plan your dairy feeding program for the coming year.

If you are feeding silage only as a roughage, it is a good idea to plant one acre for each milking cow you own. This will give enough for your dry cows and replacements.

You can grow good silage state-wide. If the land is not suitable for corn, there are some mighty good grain sorghums available. Silage is a safer crop than hay.

It is a good idea to plan for plenty of temporary summer grazing. The general recommendation is that you make three plantings of temporary summer pastures three weeks to a month apart. This should, weather permitting, provide plenty of tender fast growing grass all during the summer period.

Whatever you do with your feed program, whether you go the silage or hay route, make sure that you always plan to have more than you will need. This will help insure that you always have enough feed.

FORESTRY
Demand for forest products is expected to double in the South by the year 2,000. This is only 30 years off and it takes almost that long to grow a tree to sawing size. So, if we are going to meet the demand, we had better get busy.

Actually it is not fantastic to talk about doubling the forest growth. We can grow five times as much timber as we are now growing through intensive management -- the kind of management we give some of our crops.

Probably the two fastest ways to increase production are to increase the number of desirable trees per acre and reduce the number of undesirable trees.

Tree planting will play a big part. More than two thirds of the land that is classified as forest land in this state do not have enough desirable trees to give up salable growth.

Young stands up to six inches in diameter should have at least 600 trees per acre to get maximum growth.

Keep the undesirable trees out. If they are salable, cut them out and send them to market. If there is no value to the trees, get rid of them and replace with valuable trees.

Protect your trees from fire, disease and insects. Harvest properly through thinning and harvesting at the right times.

MISS ROBERTA WASSON OF BAY ST. LOUIS ACCEPTS DELIVERY OF HER NEW CAR FROM SALESMAN DICK WEIDEMAN, SALESMAN AT LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET.

Miss Roberta Wasson of Bay St. Louis was in need of a new car for transportation to her job at Ramada Inn. She had been hearing about all of the good deals the folks at Lamar-Lane give their customers and also reading about the good deals in the newspaper. At Lamar-Lane she was greeted by courteous salesman Dick Weideman. She told Dick the type of car she was interested in and he gave her a Lamar-Lane price that she just couldn't turn down. Miss Wasson also knows about the very good service department that Lamar-Lane has in case her car ever needs service. All of Lamar-Lane service personnel are factory trained and experts in their fields. Looking for a place to buy a new car, shop Lamar-Lane Chevrolet and ask for Dick Weideman, he could save you many dollars. LAMAR-LANE CHEVROLET, INC. ## Coast Restaurant Assn. Air Road Sign Complaints

State Assistant Attorney General Ben Walley said at Biloxi Thursday, Jan. 15 to "cut down" the wording of road signs posted in Louisiana and Mississippi is hurting business along U.S. 90 in Mississippi.

Walley, representing the State Highway Department, made the remark at the conclusion of a heated meeting with members of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Restaurant Association and representatives of Coast Chambers of Commerce.

Admitting the original signs posted to warn motorists of road repairs along the storm-damaged highway "were wrong," Walley said that "the language now is not alarming - it is informative."

And he made it clear he will not consent to highway department officials changing the message, which reads:

"Road repairs in Mississippi. Some lanes. Alternate Route U.S. 90 in Alabama and 1-75 in Louisiana."

Further Restaurant Association spokesman M. James Stevens said he suggested the Restaurant Association's Restaurant, had been for removal of the signs.

Walley, asking for a "common understanding," said, "We don't have the answers to your problem. But there are two sides to this question. We are going to have to work together while U.S. 90 is being repaired."

Gus Stevens pleaded "an understanding of the needs of the coast, adding 'let people come into the disaster area.'"

Walley said the highway department "has a responsibility to advise the traveling public that sections of U.S. 90 are closed."

Stevens suggested rerouting truck traffic and letting automobiles through and warning that if the signs aren't removed or changed "a court injunction might be sought."

Walley said he did not have the authority to make decisions for the highway department but that he had been asked to make recommendations to it.

"It is obvious the recommendation will be to leave the signs as they are," said Stevens.

He said Friday he and other members of the Restaurant Association "will consult with our attorneys to determine what to do now. Possibly a public meeting will be held sometime next week," he added.

Observe Arbor Day Tomorrow

A request that all Mississippians join with schools, churches, and civic groups in observing of Arbor Day on Friday, February 13, has been issued by State Forester Wendell B. Lack of Jackson.

The special date set aside for recognition of trees, flowers and shrubs as important contributors to the beauty and economic well-being of the Magnolia State was established many years ago by law as the second Friday in February of each year.

Traditionally, Arbor Day is celebrated with tree planting ceremonies at hundreds of schools across the state, with foresters of the Mississippi Forestry Commission, federal government agencies and private industry often participating.

Clubs and civic clubs also frequently mark the day with memorial plantings and community beautification planting projects.

In calling attention to Arbor Day, State Forester Lack remarked that: "Even as forested areas continue to be cleared away for row crops, urban expansion, super highways and utility rights-of-way, the millions of acres of forests left intact become increasingly important to our people as havens for relaxing outdoor activity and a great source of jobs and income."

"We certainly need a special day like Arbor Day each year to supply our citizens an opportunity to pause and reflect upon the many blessings which we enjoy here in Mississippi as a result of our vast forested

Eleanor "Robin" Turnipseed of Bay St. Louis has been tapped as a second-seater pledge by the Highlander Social Club at Mississippi State College for Women.

Miss Turnipseed, daughter of Mrs. Pat Turnipseed of 341 Delmonte, Bay St. Louis, is a freshman at MSCW majoring in nutrition.

"And in such Arbor Day reflections," he added, "we should each fervently resolve to do all in our personal power to protect this vital resource."

Safety Measures For Spring Burning

Outdoor burning of fields, rows, ditchbanks etc., is up for this Spring be sure burning plans include preliminary measures for as a that a harmless "up" fire doesn't become destructive wildfire.

Forester Herman Varnado notes that the date you plan to burn, etc. This will save tax which a fire crew would needlessly in checking the smoke from your fire, date weather information, etc., is also available to you by calling the firetower, 2. Plow or disc a good firelane around the area to be burned.

3. Burn late in the afternoon or early evening when humidity usually begins to build up and winds calm down.

4. Stay with the fire until it has burned out, particularly around the edges where a gust of wind could cause a spark to jump your firelines.

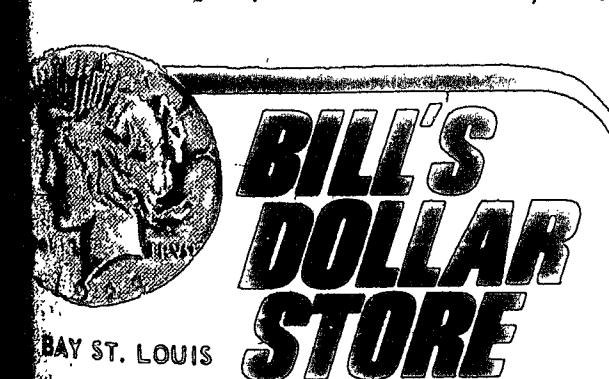

Forester Varnado notes that assistance in getting a safe firelane put around the area to be burned may be secured through his office. The hourly rate charged by the Forestry Commission for firelane construction is seven dollars, fifty cents. Call 467-4711 for further information concerning this service.

NOTICE

NOTICE is hereby given that at a meeting held in the Government office, Jackson, Mississippi, at 10:00 A. M., on the 23rd day of January, 1970, the State Mineral Lease Commission approved and adopted the following Statement of Policy and Lease Form for the letting of State-owned minerals for exploration and development of oil, gas and other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals and sulphur. All other minerals and sand and gravel that may be found shall be leased separately and nothing contained herein or in the lease form hereinafter adopted shall be construed to include such minerals.

The mineral interests to which this statement is applicable shall include both inland interests and those water bottoms beneath the tidewaters of the State in the Mississippi Sound, its estuaries, bays, rivers, bayous and inlets, be a mean-high tide and that part of such water bottoms in the Gulf of Mexico owned by the State. Leasing blocks on the plat map of the area adopted by the Commission on September 2, 1969, shall be used by prospective lessees to designate the area nominated and for description in water bottom leases.

Leases in blocks that point the shore may extend to water bottom areas upstream in a water area as far as the tide-water extends, but such leases may not include water bottoms upstream from the line of demarcation between tidewater and the inland water unless the State owns the minerals under the land areas bordering the shore. These leases of blocks that include both land and water bottom areas shall be designated as "land and water" leases and shall be subject to the same rules and regulations as the other leases of the State.

Leasing blocks may be advertised for lease upon receipt of an application from any interested party. The State Mineral Lease Commission, on its own motion and without application, may advertise for a lease in the same manner as though an application had been made for any area. Any person, firm or corporation desiring to lease a tract should mail the following requirements:

1. There may be submitted to the State Mineral Lease Commission, in duplicate and in writing, a request for advertisement of a lease containing a detailed description of the area involved and appraised acreage contained therein, and a plat showing in red the area to be leased.

2. There must be submitted along with the request a certified check to the amount of One Thousand and no/100 ($1,000.00) and cashed in the State Mineral Lease Commission, on 2/5, 2/12, 2/19/70

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L. S. (Doc) Ellow

It is disheartening to keep writing about the weather and fishing when both are on the bad side. Very few fish are being caught right now. Cold weather, a couple of days, warm weather, another couple of days and rain the other days. Our stream are dirty and fish won't hit with that kind of conditions. Maybe when the weather levels off for a few days, fishing will get good again. Even us old timers don't know where to go, or what to do.

February 13th practically ended hunting for this year. Sportmen will turn to other sports with fishing heading the list.

Catfish can be caught in most any kind of water. Probably we should go to that kind of fishing for a while. They are easy to catch and are excellent eating.

A lot of our sportmen have been too busy going to parties on the Gulf Coast and in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras season. Entertaining our children should come first, anyhow.

The golf course at Pass Christian Isles was a busy place over the weekend. You can always play golf when fishing and hunting is out. The course is in pretty good shape right now after being damaged by Camillo. The Club house has been renovated and in operation again.

Oysters are being caught in outside waters. They can be bought at Bayou Caddy and at Pearllington. They are of good size and delicious as usual. An oyster fry with a few beers can't be beat.

Understand John Plous is going to build back houses on Wotko Bayou. They should be ready for this summer. Such a place will be a welcome addition to sportmen looking for a place to keep their boats.

Eric Noealis and Leroy Carroll get their share of speck trout when they were hitting up Jordan River. Both are good fishermen and go on every occasion.

John Lightfoot from Montgomery, Alabama, is a new member of the force at The Echo. John expects to do a lot of fishing this summer.

Bill and Ector Browington have gone to Tampa, Florida to live. Both love to fish. They did it here and should find pretty good going in Florida.

Chop and Shirley Richardson love their fishing. They operate the Flamingo bar and the pool hall on Highway 80. Speaking of pool it is a popular indoor sport. When there is nothing else to do, pool is played by a lot of our sports for instance, Bill Stewart, Bob Fleming, John Sesside, Jr., John Conin, Don Carr, Yours Truly and others.

Have thought of taking a tape recording set on a fishing trip. But as I know my buddies when they miss a big one, it probably could only be played back to "mon only."

One sportman who will be glad when the soft crab and floundering seasons start is Eddie Marquez. Eddie gets his share of both. Should have plenty of time to go buddy, since the bar went with Camillo. Let me know when you're ready.

Another sport which will start shortly is frogging. Catching frogs is real fun and eating frog legs is better. A hand light, a gig or hand grabber to all the equipment needed.

Won't be long before crayfish time will be here. Crayfish are caught in small square nets. It is fun for the whole family and hard to beat crayfish and a few beers for an enjoyable feast. Louisiana

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

One of our all-around sportmen is Lorenzo Walnwright. He fishes and hunts. Lorenzo has a home near Bayou LaCade where he does a lot of his fishing. He catches most everything.

low lands furnish the best places for catching them.

Funny to hear folks say they are too busy to go fishing. They are never too busy to die. Better enjoy a little pleasure before it's too late.

Have heard a lot of comment on the tide table run on the front page of The Echo again. Tides affect all fishing and it is a pleasure to have the time table in your wallet. Thanks, fellows. It is used by most fishermen.

Was a pleasure meeting Denton Scott the now pro at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club. Denton hails from Columbia, Miss. and came to the Isles on July 1st. He knows his golf and is pretty busy putting the course back in the fine shape it was before Camillo. He is popular with the members of the club. and a good pro.

Among those playing golf over the weekend were, Dr. Griffin, John Scaffide, Genin and Junior Luke Elliott, Yours Truly, Dick Hammett and others. Golf is a wonderful sport regardless of what some people think.

Now that carnival is over sportmen will turn to fishing and other sports. Those participating in the Waveland parade were a bunch of real sports and had a ball making others enjoy themselves. Every one loves a parade, young and old and the sponsors, workers, members of the Krowe of Ne-roids should be congratulated for putting on a real parade. Keep up the good work, folks.

Sorry to report the death of Sidney Bourgeois of Waveland last week. Sidney was a member of our local sports.

The first annual Jaycee parade was held Tuesday in Bay St. Louis. Was good to have a carnival parade after a few years lay-off in our city.

Fished in Ted Lyman's pond, a haven for green trout and perch. Not a strike. We had to blame it on the bad water.

August Raunet has his boat back in order. Should have some real fishing trips soon. He shares his boat with his friends.

Fellows such as Wop Glover, Jack Gorrige, Harry Roman, David Carter, Dick Mestayer, Jimmy Larroux, will go back to fishing now that hunting is over. There is always something to do on the Mississippi Coast, a haven for sportmen.

Reorganizational Meeting Held Wed.

Sodality of Our Lady of St. Clare's Parish held a reorganizational meeting last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Ada Edal.

Rev. Walter Maloney, pastor of St. Clare's Church, offered the opening prayer and Mrs. Daniel LeRoy, Vice Prefect, conducted the business session. Mrs. Albert Grass, recording secretary, presented minutes of the last meeting, held in July.

A nominating committee consisting of Mesdames John Rags, Edward LeVasseur and Sarah Pherning was appointed to present a slate of officers for the coming year at the next meeting.

It was voted to continue having monthly communion on the first Sunday of each month at the 9 a.m. Mass, during August.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, February 24, in the home of Mrs. Grace on Jackson Avenue. Following the church prayer by Father Maloney a social hour was enjoyed by the 17 members attending.

NOTES FROM PEARLINGTON
by GRENDA ANDERSON
633-7074

Among the young people from Pearlington making the news in the BCEO from Pearlington last week were Susan Palmer, Denise Graham, Donna Delacorte, Barbara White and Betty Snow. Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Lohr, won first place in Class 3 "C" - Candies, at the Tiger Lily Show at Bay Center High. Denise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Strahan, held honorable mention in Class 3 "H" - Holidays. Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Delacorte, held Honorable mention in Class 4 "R" - Red and Green. Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William (Bill) White, won third place in Class 3 "T" - Inspirations. Betty is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snow and she placed third in Class 10 "S" - Sign of the Season. These creative girls are certainly to be congratulated on bringing home the honors.

Another young lady formerly of Pearlington, Miss Pam Walling also made us feel very proud when she received the Betty Crocker Award at Hancock North Central. Congratulations, Pam.

Valentine's Day is this Saturday and here is a poem for that occasion and for my husband, Jim.

I KNOW A SMILE I LOVE
I know a smile I love to see,
A voice I love to hear,
I know a hand I love to hold,
A presence I love near,
I know a heart - a loving heart
That's thoughtful, fine and true,
I know them all, and love them all
For they belong to you!

DIAL "O" FOR OPERATOR

At 6:30 a.m. Tuesday morning I decided to place a long distance telephone call to my home town of Ellisville. After I had dialed "O" and received no answer after a reasonable length of time I repeated the process, which I proceeded to repeat approximately five times during the next twenty minutes. Still receiving no answer I dialed the Business Office in Bay St. Louis and asked the lady politely if all the operators might be asleep. She answered something to the effect of "No, they're not! You'll just have to dial again." The tone of voice was not too friendly. I dialed "O" again. It is now 6:45 and still there is no answer. The party I am trying to call leaves for work at 7:00. As I sit there I am thinking "Thank God, I'm not trying to reach the operator to report a fire or to request an ambulance. This has happened before to the residents of Pearlington, almost everyone you ask has a gripe against the Telephone Company Operators. A few times it has happened during a time no mentioned above. The call I had intended to make is not on my mind now. It had turned into a challenge to see how long it will take to get an operator on the line. It occurs to me to call the Telephone Company Manager at his home, but I can't do that because that's a long distance call and you need an operator for that! It's 6:50 and still no answer. My ear is burning from holding the phone so long. Occasionally I redial "O" in hopes of attracting a disinterested operators attention. As I flip through the phone book I spot this: dial "Operator" and say for example "I want to report a fire at..." If you cannot say at the phone tell the "Operator" the exact location where help is needed. WHAT OPERATOR? It's 7:30 and still no answer.

Turned the television on to catch the news. As I sat there I thought to myself, "How is it possible to say please and thank you to operators who are paid to answer the phone and who are expected to be helpful?" I'm beginning to believe that their actions are well founded and wonder how I will come to this one after I get home. IF I GET HERE BY 7:10 and still no answer, my ears are aching. I've redialed again this

REGISTERED BLACK ANGUS bull above last week of the South Mississippi Livestock Show in Hattiesburg by Paul Harris, Junior 4-H Club member of Kiln placed second in his class and was judged a blue ribbon animal. The calf donated to the Hancock County 4-H Club by Paul Harris, Jr. The calf was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Vic Thian and Dr. Hovette Thian, was assigned to Paul Harris, Jr. Smith, County Agent, Paul raised the calf under the supervision of Smith and Assistant County Agent, William Goodwin.

Manager Appointed For 1970 Census

Appointment of Richard S. Thompson of Hattiesburg, Mississippi as District Manager of the 1970 Census of Population and Housing in this area was announced today by Director Thomas W. McWhirter of the Census Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta.

Mr. Thompson received a degree from Vanderbilt University with a major in Business Administration and has recently been engaged in a local business enterprise. From the District Office makes about the 11th time.

Now I'm beginning to worry about the Operator. Maybe she's sick or hurt and is in need of help. Who would help the operator. It's 7:20, one hour from the time I started my call. Placed another call to the Business Office and asked her if there was anyway she could check on the operator. The lady said that the business office would not be open until 9:00 and said she would have an Operator call me. She also asked me if I was dialing "O". What else may I ask you dial for an OPERATOR? Tried to tell her that I didn't want one that someone needed to check on the one they had. Only a little later two of voices this time. Waited a few minutes and no Operator called back. Redialed "O" an Operator answered. Asked her for her number and all she would say was that she was the Long Distance Operator the only one I could reach from Pearlington.

She said that my signal was received for the first time when she answered. Asked me if my phone was working. Waited for her to ask me if I was dialing "O", she didn't. The annoying recording that answers when you dial a wrong or discontinued number could touch the operator a thing or two. At least it answers promptly. Don't get me wrong, I'm not insulting all the operators. Some of them are life savers. As a matter of fact I read in the Bell Notes not long ago about an operator who helped during an emergency when a child who had been taught to dial "O" in case of such. But what about the ones in millions that didn't answer a call for help. For the company who claims to be the nations Bedside Watch Dog they should hire watch dogs to watch their employees. Anyone who has a complaint to register with them should do so. The next time or need of an ambulance might be yours.

WHAT IS GOOD
By John Boyle O'Reilly
"What is the real good?"
I ask in a musing mood.
"Order," said the law court;
"Knowledge," said the school;
"Truth," said the video man;
"Peace," said the fool;
"Love," said the madman;
"Beauty," said the poet;
"Freedom," said the dreamer;
"Honor," said the cynic;
"Faith," said the scholar;
"Equity," said the coo;
Spoke my heart fully out:
"The answer is not here."
Then within my brain
Early this I heard:
"Each heart holds the secret
"Kindness" is the word."
